Mining Assn. Finds Canada Mart Open For California Gold

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24—California gold producers can receive between $27 and $28 per ounce for their gold, after all costs and handling charges are deducted, if their product is marketed at Vancouver, B. C., according to a statement just issued by the Mining Association of California. In accord with the recent United States treasury department ruling permitting the exportation of gold ores, including native and placer gold, concentrates, precipitates and unretorted amalgam, which have not been refined or smelted, and the decision of the Dominion of Canada to accept these products at the Dominion assay office, Vancouver, for refining, the Canadian Department of Finance will purchase the resultant gold at the current London price.

This marks the latest advance in an effort to obtain the benefits of world market prices for United States gold producers. through securing either the right to export their product or obtain a free domestic market, in which California has been prominently identified through its Mining Association. The campaign commenced some two months ago, apprising the administration by individual telegrams of the critical situation in the gold mining industry, caught between rapidly rising prices of mining supplies and commodities and the fixed price of $20.67 per ounce of gold. It was more forcibly brought to national attention by a full page statement in a daily newspaper by major gold producers of the west. This was copied and commented upon throughout the country and was also sent directly to President Roosevelt.

Some three weeks thereafter, permission to export all newly mined gold ,except that which has been refined or smelted, was granted, with the opening of a Canadian market for United States gold, California producers can now receive the benefit of world market prices for their product which means an increase of some $5,000,000 to the annual income of the state.

BANK REVIEW REVEALS GAINS IN EMPLOYMENT

Improved conditions of agriculture and business throughout California are reflected in the trade and crop reports contained in the August issue of the Bank of America Business Review.

The bank's preliminary July index of Far Western Business registered 64.2 a gain of 4.2 points over the June figure and an increase of 19.3 per cent over the depression low of 53.8 registered in March.

The gain from June to July is the largest since February 1930. The next largest gain since that date was 3.6, recorded in June of this year over the May showing. The 1933 July index figure is approximately at the level of March, 1932, and is 2.2 points above July 1932.

An increase of 8.1 per cent over July, 1932, and an increase of 7.1 per cent over June, 1933, was shown in the number of persons employed in California manufacturing industries last month, the Review says. The gain over July 1932, is the largest increase over the corresponding month of a preceding year which has been shown in the past 24 months.

A survey of July building permits in 58 cities throughout eight far western states showed a 66.7 per cent gain over July 1932. Bank debits for the month in 27 Western cities were 8.4 per cent above the debits in July 1932, the largest percentage gain since October of 1929. Dollar volume of retail sales in July of this year was 12.8 per cent above the July 1932 total, the largest percentage gain since February, 1924.

HOUSING SHORTAGE DISADVANTAGE TO CITY

Houses are being built and still the demand is not met. A family in which there were five children was living in a small two room house near the outskirts of Nevada City. It was crowded and not suitable for winter, so the father remained in Nevada City, where he has a job while his family moved to Reno to live.

As one business man estimated Nevada City schools would be benefited by the attendance of 50 more children if there were more houses for families to rent.

KEYSTONE MINE ASSAYS REVEAL EXCELLENT ORE

The Keystone mine, formerly known as the Grass Valley Premier and the Goforth property, is making rapid headway in development. The property has recently been taken over by the Keystone Divide of Nevada.

E. H. McMurray and associates who own this big holding, on Monday had a series of assays made which show excellent values. The muck pile ran $16 in gold and over 11 ounces in silver. Across the face of the cut on the 55 foot level the assay resulted in $14.40 in gold and over 16 ounces ni silver. The sulphide ore ran $13.40 in gold and 12 ounces in silver.

The most significant assay was taken 117 feet north of the fault in the winze. Here the quartz ran $42 in gold and 22.91 ounces of silver. This is regarded by engineers to be the same vein as that upon which the shaft is sunk.

Mr. McMurray has ordered the shaft to be sunk immediately to the 200 foot level.

HI STUDENTS TO ENROLL TODAY

All students who plan to attend the Nevada City high school during the coming school year are requested to register and enroll today. Mr. H. E. Kjorlie, principal, will assist students with their registration between the hours of 2:30 to 5:00 and 7:00 to 9:00 p. m.

All students who registered last June should re-register at this time. New students are urged to bring report cards or transcripts of their previous work. Classes will begin promptly at 8:40 a. m. Monday, August 28.

The high school will accomodate post-graduates, and any that have no definite plans for next year are urged to enroll for work that may be to their liking.

Washington grammar school and the Nevada City high school will open next Monday morning, August 28, with all teachcers present to start the school year.

Last years registration at the grammar school was 286 pupils and as Indian Flat was closed last season those pupils will attend Nevada City grammar school.

A number of families have moved to Nevada City this summer and more will come in from the mines and add quite a number to the local school attendance.

Mrs. Mabel Flindt has been engaged to teach the third grade, filling the vacancy left by Miss Noyes who was married recently.

Mr. McGinnis has been secured to teach the eighth grade the position being made vacant by the resignation of Mrs. Kate McCormack.

Saturday will be registration day at grammar school for all new pupils. Mr. Walter Carlson, principal, wishes all of them who possibly can to come as it saves a lot of confusion for Monday.

The Nugget $2.00 per year.

BANNER SHAFT ON LAVA CAP TO BE UNWATERED

The latest news from the Lava Cap Gold Mining Corporation is that the management is cleaning out the old Banner shaft preparatory to unwatering it.

A power line has been extended from the Central to the Banner shaft, a distance of one and three quarter miles and within two weeks a compressor and hoist will be installed. Unwatering of the 900 foot Banner shaft will start shortly. Development plans are to connect with the old workings of the Banner.

At the Central a 100 horsepower double drum hoist is being installed and a 1700 cubic foot Chicago pneumatic compressor put in place. A 70 foot gallows frame is being erected. Excavation for the 200 ton mill is under way. The shaft has been completed to the 850 foot level and as soon as the new hoist is completed this will be continued to the 1050 foot level.

Both properties are being jointly operated by the Lava Cap Gold Mining Corporation.

Mr. R. F. D. Le Mon, of New York, executive vice president of the company, has been here several weeks inspecting the property and making arrangements for further development.

Gordon S. Pendelbury of Bridgeport, Conn., auditor for the company, has just arrived to assume his duties, and will reside in Nevada City. Otto E. Schiffner is general manager of the Lava Cap Gold Mining Corporation.

KINDERGARTIN AGE LIMIT RAISED OCT. 26

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 24—(UP) The kindergarten bill doesn't go into effect until October 26. That means children aged between 4½ and 5 years will be admitted to kindergartens in the fall.

Once there, it's doubtful if school authorities would eject them, during the fall term, after th elaw becomes effective. The legislature passed a measure raising the minimum kindergarten age from 4½ to 5 years. It was vetoed but passed over the governor's objections.

ENTERPRISE SHAFT TO GO DOWN TO BEDROCK

Last week the Enterprise mine company in the Quaker Hill mining district, had sunk its shaft to the 100 foot level in gravel and struck an abundance of water.

Immediately a 50 gallon per minute pump was ordered and installed and th emanagement is now engaged in pumping out the water. It is planned to sink between 50 and 100 feet more before striking bedrock.

This property lies on the rich old gravel channel that extends from North Bloomfield to Dutch Flat.

A crew of nine men is employed. Mr. J. P. McFadden is superintendent of the property.

FLOWER SHOW IS SET FOR SEPT. 16

A meeting of the garden club section of the Woman's Civic Club was held last evening at Brands Studio and they decided to hold the annual Flower Show September 16.

They also are making arrangements to secure quarters for the gorgeous display of flowers. This will be the fourth Flower Show to be held by the Club. They were all successe sand each year seems to lead the others in variety, size and color of flowers. The fall flowers of Nevada City seem to carry more brilliant hues than those of the valleys.

All members of the Garden club were present at last night's meeting an dit is felt that this year's show will be more successful than the others.

PRISON ATTACHES HALT NARCOTIC SMUGGLING

FOLSOM PRISON, Aug. 24—(UP) —Repeated attempts to smuggle narcotics into Folsom prison are constantly being frustrated by alert penitentiary attaches, Warden C. Smith revealed to the United Press.

"Here's one way," he explained, as he pulled out desk drawer. Inside were communications to prisoners written on thick cards. They had been slit open and inside was enough cocaine to satisfy the craving of certain convicts. Another method is to soak cocaine into paper.

State Board Issues New Sales Tax Rules

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 24—California's state government will not "split pennies" in the administration of the new 2½ per cent sales tax, but if individual merchants wish to do so the state has no objection:

Such, in effect, was the ruling handed down today by the State Board of Equalization, definitely rejecting proposals that the state issue stamps, tokens or coupons for fractions of a cent to permit "breaddown" of the tax on small purchases.

In annuoncing its decision, however, the equalization board flatly declared that the collection of a penny tax on 5 or 10 cents is "entirely beyond justification" and declared the "profiteering and chiseling under the guise of taxation will be stamped out at all costs."

THREE SALIENT RULES

Enunciating its policies on collection of the tax, the state board laid down three salient rules as follows:

1. No stamps, tokens or coupons will be issued by the state for fractions of a cent.

2. Merchants can, if they wish, however, issue "house money" in fractions of a cent to facilitate collection of a tax on small purchases. But the state will look to the retailer for 2½ per cent of his gross sales, regardless of how the tax is collected.

3. Collection of a penny tax on items less than 15 cents is "frowned upon" by the Board as unjustifiable and in violation of the letter and spirit of the law. Merchants who use the tax for chiseling and profiteering will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

"The Board has no objection whatever to any system which merchants may work out on small sales," the official statement of policy said, "providing the total tax collected is not more than 2½ per cent, as required by law. Attempts to use the tax as a quick route to excess profits, however, will bring vigorous prosecutions.

"This tax was adopted to meet an emergency condition in state and local government in California and to give much needed relief to overburdened property owners. Abuses will not and can not be tolerated. The success of this program—at least in California—is just as important to the welfare of our people as the success of the national recovery program. The tax-dodger, or the tax-profiteer, will get exactly the same treatment which the draft-evader and the war-profiteer got in war times."

RILEY'S STATEMENT

The statement was signed by Richard E. Collins, chairman of the board, H. G. Cattell and John C. Corbett, members, and Fred E. Stewart, member of the board and director of the Tax Research Bureau, with State Controller, Ray L. Riley, ex-officio member.

Controller Riley, summing up the board's position, declared that, "The merchant who is short-sighted enough to build up sales resistence by charging excessive and unwarranted taxation will be regulated by public opinion. This tax will save thousands of California property owners from bankruptcy and it deserves the support of every citizen who is sincerely interested in a return to normal conditions."

C. E. Clinch Is Named County NRA Chairman

To The Citizens of Nevada County:

Have received from Honorable George Creel, NRA Administrator for Western Division, the following telegram:

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 17, '33
C. E. CLINCH,
Grass Valley, Calif.,

Will You Accept Appointment as County Chairman NRA to Take Place of Late Stanley Bavier? If so Instructions Will Follow.

George Creel.

I have decided to accept. The duties are many.

The late Stanley Bavier of Truckee, who was the NRA Supervisor for the County, recently passed away from the result of an automobile accident. He was a brilliant man, and all his friends were pleased when he was appointed, knowing that he would be conscientious in the performance of the duties assigned him. I feel, therefore, that to carry out the many phases of the work that he would have so splendidly handled that it will be necessary for me to have the confidence and assistance of those engaged in business and in all walks of life.

The position carries with it much power which I trust I will not be forced to use. I feel that Nevada County has always been 100 per cent loyal to the Government and I urgently ask that what has prevailed in the past will continue into the future. Each month when I report to the Western Division I shall be veary happy if the report carries with it 100 per cent performance on the part of the merchants, and that the public has given loyal support to the National Recovery Act.

To those who are in doubt as to what they should do to comply with the Blue Eagle in order to retain it, I shall be very happy at all times to advise. If Iam unable to answer any question I shall immediately secure the information desired.

As conditions change there will be new rules which will be immediately transmitted through the press in order that all will be officially advised.

Your cooperation is respectfully invited, and by following the rules which the President has requested:

A. LIVE UP TO THE AGREEMENT.
B. DON'T PROFITEER.
C. DEAL ONLY WITH OTHERS "UNDER THE BLUE EAGLE."
D. GET A CODE IN BY SEPTEMBER 1st.

If the above requests are lived up to and when the war on depression is won you will be able to keep as an evidence of your loyalty to the Blue Eagle membership card unblemished. As time goes on you will have something in your possession of which you will be proud. It is an evidence now of your belief in American principles and when conditions are improved, which they will be, you will feel proud that you assisted in bringing about increased wages, employment, and shorter hours.

It will assist in finding places for fifteen million men and women who are now out of employment, many of them suffering the pangs of hunger, sickness, and distress.

The position does not carry with it a remuneration. The only reward is to perform the duties conscientiously and in order to do so I must have the cooperation of all. This I respectfully ask. If the county maintains at all times the NRA 100 per cent I shall feel well rewarded.

C. E. CLINCH,
Nevada County Supervisor NRA.

EDITOR'S NOTE: A reading of Mr. Creel's instructions to Mr. Clinch indicates that the county chairman's duties are not a duplicate of the NRA's set up through the various Chamber of Commerces but rather advisory and supervisory to such organizations. The county unit ties in with the State Chamber of Commerce with William Boucher of Sacramento district supervisor of this region. It is clearly indicated that the county-wide organization is intended to be an important cog in the immense NRA machine with authority given the supervisor to contact individuals and firms outside of the local NRA's.

MACK MINES EXPLORES MCCUTCHEON PROPERTY

A power line is being built to the former McCutcheon property, now known as the Mack Mines Ltd., located near the Canada Hill mine.

A crew working under Bruce Wallacce, superintendent, is building a headframe and putting in an electric hoist.

The Mack Mines Ltd. will sink the shaft to about 125 feet at which level it is expected to cut the vein.

This gravel was worked as placer and the vein, which was uncovered during placcer operations, was not developed.

ALL NEVADA CITY EMPLOYERS SIGN N. R. A. COMPACT

Nevada City employers are 100 per cent supporters and signers of President Roosevelt's blanket NRA agreement. This was the report of General Phil Scadden at Monday night's meeting of NRA officials. He stated that all of the pledges distributed to merchants and other employers in Nevada City had been signed and returned to him.

Col. Fred Conners announced that he had established a forty hour week for the Nevada County Lumber company with a mimimum wage of 45 cents an hour.

Col. Mrs. Belle Douglass, in charge of publicity, announced the appointment of four captains: Mrs. James Hutchinson, Mrs. Fred E. Conner, J. W. O'Neill and H. M. Leete.

Arrangements have already been made for official film advertising.

BLUE POINT MINE AT SMARTVILLE IS SOLD

F. A. Beauchamp, owner of the Blue Point gravel mine at Smartville, has sold the property to Titanic Standard of Utah, one of the largest mining holding companies in the United States. J. M. Slow, executive of the Utah corporation, is in charge of operations at Smartville.

Several carloads of mining machinery have been unloaded at the mine which will be worked on a very large tonnage basis with modern equipment.

The Blue Point has been worked in a small way by the hydraulic process for the last several years and by various other methods prior to that.

Debris dams will be erected below the property to catch the tailings from the mine.

The Misses Nobs of Redwood City and Burbank respectively, are visiting their brother, Fred Nobs, of Grass Valley.

PROTECTING THE PUBLIC HEALTH

With the possible exception of food and shelter, no public problem is more pressing in times of economic stress than proper medical care for the sick. The demands made upon clinics and charitable organizations increase inversely as their budgets dwindle; the public welfare work expected of private physicians undergoes the same process with respect to their personnal incomes. It is only by the utmost cooperation that such situations can be met.

California, perhaps, is more fortunate than some states in this regard because of the accord which exists between various health agencies, public and private. An instance of the lengths to which organizations are going to cope with the State's health problems has come to our attention through a report by Dean Langley Porter of the University of California Medical School. While the duties of this institution are primarily to train physicians the teaching staff has come forward with a plan whereby citizens of California who seek medical care and have insufficient money to pay for the service, may be referred by their physicians to the University Hospital Clinic. This offer is directed particularly to rare and obscure diseases whicch are difficult to diagnose and treat. Under this plan, Dean Porter reports, the University has already taken care of approximately 2000 patients.

In making his announcement Dean Porter said: "This school recognizes that while it has one major study, which is to provide California with well-equipped physicians, it has other and no less urgent duties. Through research and investigation it must keep itself in the front rank of the battle against death and disease. Through knowledge gained by this research and study it must bring leadership to the general practioners of the State of California. This it strives to do by making the knowledge of the highly trained staff of the school available to those medical men of the state who need and ask for help. Recognition of these duties to the general practitioner has caused the University Medical School to establish a consultation service open to those physicians of the state who wish to refer patients. Patients unable to pay full fees for such aid may be sent by their physicians to the University clincs where the facts about their maladies are studied, recorded, and fully analyzed. The facts, and this analysis are incorporated in a report sent to the referring physicians when the patient is returned to him for further treatment. Patients who can pay a limied fee are expected to do so, but the charges never exceed the actual cost of the work."

PRESS REACTION TO NRA

Getting the people back on their feet should be the first consideration under the National Recovery act, according to California editors.

But, to do this, the editors generally agree, increased profits will be necessary for business so that the program of re-employment, higher wages and shorter work days may be carried out.

"The full effect of this program," said the Santa Ana Register, "will not be seen for many weeks, though it is already showing a very valuable upturn in the employment of labor. The whole situation requires patience and hope. It is difficult indeed to suggest to those who have gone through several years of most harrowing distress to be patient, because those who have not personally and seriously suffered are hardly in a position to understand and certainly not to preach or lecture to the other group."

"Even a special code for each industry, carefully developed after weeks of labor," said the Los Angeles Record, "will not insure equal treatment for each unit of that industry. Modifications of each code will have to be worked out, as experience dictates. We are attempting a huge experiment involving enormously intricate machinery. At best it will be some time before the whole machine functions harmoniously, and plenty of the oil of common sense must be used if the wheels of progress are to be kept turning smoothly."

"N. R. A. is a development," said the Porterville Evening Recorder. It was not thought out in one day, but is a development from the minds of many men over many years. It will not cure all, but it is a gigantic step in the right direction and will help greatly to curb the distress which occassionally is brought on by the law of supply and demand."

"If, under the new recovery plan for business, the nation is to be forced into thinking for a while in terms of humanity rather than in terms of dollars and profits," comments the Napa Daily Register, "it will go pretty hard with a good many individuals but it will be of incalulable benefit to the masses. But it must be kept in mind that the driving wheel of business is profit—not only profit to the owner of the business but to his employes—and to eliminate this entirely would not be for the good of anybody."

"It is reported," according to the Berkeley Daily Gazette "that hundreds of violations of the general code as well as missuse of NRA insignia have already been uncovered, and that at the expiration of an additional two weeks in which to conform, violators will be prosecuted. The National Recovery act, an untried and desperate attempt of the government to save our economic system, must be given a fair and full trial by the people of the nation. There must be no half measures in meeting the requirements laid down by Washington."

In this connection the Santa Rosa Press Democrate remarks:

"The government has ample power to enforce its regulations. They will be enforced and to the limit. Economic conditions demand it, besides which the administration is determined that there shall be no question as to the outcome."

PLAYERS TO PRESENT "THE FISHERMAN" SUNDAY

At the Methodist church, on Sunday evening 8 p. m. the Pilgrim Players, under the management and direction of Dr. George Bunnell, will present the religious drama, "The Fisherman."

This drama is admittedly the most popular of all religious dramas, and portrays the tempestuous and loving heart of the Apostle Peter throughout his association with Jesus.

The characters are Simon Peter, played by Rev. Paul A. Lomax; Adma, his wife, played by Frances De Curtins; Deborah, mother of Adma, played by Della Mae Bunnell; Ucal, brother of Deborrah, played by Dr. George Bunnell.

The Pilgrim Players are pioneers in religioious drama, and have appeared in the largest churches in Los Angeles and throughout the country. They are a professional group of Chrisitan people who give their message in this way, and their presentations are deeply religious and scriptural. Their work is endorsed by all the leading churches on the Pacific Coast, and especially Southern California, where they have played continuously for the past three seasons.

Their work is most highly endorsed by pastors of all denominations. This is an opportunity to hear and see the portrayal of a great story by artists in this great field of endeavor. A silver offering will be collected.

BUILDING SHOWS BIG STATE GAIN

By MELVIN LORD

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 24—(UP)—Outlook for California's building and construction industry is "exceedingly bright" in the opinion of Carlos W. Huntington, state registrar of contractors.

"In addition to the two giant San Francisco bay bridges and other public works projects, reports reaching our office show a substantial gain in private building activity, including business properties and home building," Col. Huntington said.

"This gain in private construction is not centralized in any one section, but appears to be statewide. This trend is a good barometer to economic conditions throughout the state."

While forecasting an increase in the number of registered contractors to take care of the work, Huntington pointed out that amendments to the contractors' act have tightened up the requirements and "will very likely prevent many persons from obtaining a license for 1933-34."

Despite the low ebb of construction operations during 1932-33 the state's second largest industry required 22,365 registered contractors to fulfill requirements.

State records show there were 32 registered contractors in Nevada county last June as compared to 30 in June, 1932.

IS THERE ENOUGH

LIGHT in your home?

YOU can make a distinct change in the appearance and comfortable livableness of your home by giving a little attention to lighting. Usually that is all that is needed, attention and thought given to proper lighting in the same measure as thought and attention is given to color schemes, furniture selection and arrangement. Proper lighting is not costly to attain if it is carefully planned for comfortable and convenient use.

Study the illustration above. It shows a common fault with lighting that may be noticed in many homes, and perhaps your home. Here is a lamp placed beside a corner of a davenport because the furniture arrangement placed a table there. The result is a limited spread of light. Proper lighting would make the entire davenport a comfortable and pleasant place in which to read or work without squinting or eyestrain.

Poor light induces eyestrain and may cause permanent harm to vision. It is also responsible for headaches, weariness, depressed feeling and nervousness.

And it costs so little to light up for cheerfulness, for comfort, for adding to the attractiveness of your home. Lamps and electricity are lower in price today than ever before. They are so inexpensive that every home should have all the light needed for comfort, health and safety.

BLUE TENT PLACER MINE TO BE REOPENED

H. P. Brown has taken a lease and bond on the Blue Tent placer mining property, north of Nevada City, from Thomas Marshall and Mrs. Elenore E. Hoeft DeWein, owners of the property.

Plans are to drive the main tunnel ahead in a southerly direction. There are two well known channels on the property, the blue and gray leads. This tunnel will work these channels which lie to the south within the boundaries of the property that consists of between 500 and 600 acres.

In the early days the Blue Tent Placer Mining property was known as one of the richest producers in the state and Mr. Brown hopes to put the property back on its original production before long.

Thomas Marshall arrived in Nevada City in 1880 and has been connected with the mining business in Nevada and Sierra counties ever since. He was for 40 years accountant at the North Star mine of Grass Valley, until that property was taken over by the Newmont interests about four years ago.

American Heroines

By LOUISE M. COMSTOCK

Emily Geiger

GEN. NATHANIEL GREENE, whose vigorous campaign in Georgia and the Carolinas eventually won that territory for Washington and the colonists, was retreating before Lord Rawdon from Ninety-Six. When he reached the Broad river word was brought him that the pursuing troops had divided forces. He immediately conceived the plan of taking advantage of this division to make an attack, confident that though he had been helpless against the superior number of Rawdon's combined forces, he could easily defeat the two smaller forces, taken one at a time. His own lines were depleted, however, by the recent engagement, his men weary. To insure his success it was necessary to gain the aid of Gen. "Game Cock" Sumter, then scouting on the banks of the Wateree, many miles away. The message must be carried through dangerous country, ridden with Tories. Not a man would volunteer to make the journey.

Then there came to General Greene's quarters, offering to undertake this hazardous commission, a young girl named Emily Geiger. Of Emily's family, of her appearance, we know very little. Of her later life we know only that she eventually married a rich planter and became mistress of a plantation on the Congeree river.

But we do know that General Greene accepted Emily as his messenger, entrusted her with a letter to General Sumter, and read its contents to her, just in case of accident. So she set out, mounted on horseback and riding side-saddle. On the second day of her journey, she was intercepted by Lord Rawdon's scouts and sharply questioned. Now Emily could not tell an untruth without blushing. Her looks were very guilty indeed. Lord Rawdon's scouts promptly took her prisoner, and confined her in a room in a nearby farmhouse. They sent for an old Tory matron to come and search her.

H. E. Kjorlie, principal of the Nevada City high school, with Mrs. Kjorlie, returned from his studies at Stanford University Tuesday. He completed his thesis for his master's degree.

CUTS OREGON TIMBER LOGS IT IN CALIFORNIA

ALTURAS, Aug. 24—(UP)—Whether Thomas Hughes conducts his logging operations in California or Oregon would be rather difficult to determine.

Hughes is engaged in logging an 80-acre tract of timber situated just along the boundary line on the Oregon side. Many of the trees, though cut on Oregon territory, fall over into California.

As a result many times finds himself in the peculiar position of cutting timber in Oregon but logging it out of California.

REOPENING OF SEVERAL OLD MINES REPORTED

Several mine properties near Nevada City and in Sierra county have been leased within the last few days.

Announcement comes from San Francisco that the Yuba Sierra Development Company has taken over the Plumbago and Eldorado mines in the Alleghany district. Plans are made to reopen them at once.

The Plumbago has a production record of $3,500,000 and the Eldorado has produced about $400,000. Both properties lie close to the big producing mines of the district but have been idle for a number of years.

It is also reported that the Yuba Sierra Company has taken options on the Boreham property south of town lying near Town Talk and the Ideal gold mine adjoining it.

Word comes to us that the Fraction claim in the Willow Valley district has been bonded and men are busy reopening the property.

ASSN. FORMS TO ASK TAX REPEAL

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 24—(UP)—The sales tax still holds the center of th estage as far as the state capitol is concerned, and it is concerned.

Opposition to the 2½ per cent levy took definite form with the filing of incorporation papers for an organization to be known as the "Sales Tax Repeal Association, Inc." Headquarters are in San Francisco.

Meantime the state board of equalization still is struggling with the problem of preventing tax profiteering partticularly on small sales. Announcement was made that the board would have field agents in every county by September 1 to see that merchants were not charging more than the 2½ per cent rate. All retailers also were ordered to obtain their $1 licenses by September 1.

Good news for some 35,000 school children in Southern California, or bad news for educators and parents depending on the viewpoint. Anyway, state officials are concerned over the fact an enforced vacation may be necessary this Fall because they haven't found a way to get around the requirement school builders must be "quake proof" under terms of a bill passed by the legislature. Temporary structures available until new schools can be built to replace those destroyed by the 'quake do not meet this requirement.

In many ways 1933 may not have been, so far, the best year on record, but you don't hear the state division of forestry kicking. Forest fire records for the first six months of the year show only 40,882 acres of grass and timber burned in state-protected areas, with damage estimated at $53,808. Forest fire damage for other half-years: 1932, $72,344; 1931, $601,333.

Now that legislation has failed, it is the duty of education to give proper consideration to the liquor problem, in the opinion of iVerling Kersey, state superintendent of public instruction. Special phamplets have been issued for the use of California teachers showing the effect of alcohol on health. School courses are being revised to stress the importance of and respect for law enforcement. The schools, however, will wage no militant campaign against liquor, Kersey said.

Injured in an automobile accident in Southern California, Rolland A. Vandegrift, state director of finance is supervising his department from a hospital bed. One of his first acts after recovering partially from the shock of a broken shoulder, was to advise Governor Rolph to veto the bill repealing the law which authorizes assessment of a general ad valorem tax when state revenues do not meet expenditures. Vandegrift now claims the bill would endanger state credit, particularly from the standpoint of bond markets.

BANK BURGLARS ALARM SOUNDS FAR TOO LATE

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 24.—(UP)—Police emergency squads rushed to the corner of 7th and I streets when the burglar alarm gong of the closed California National bank started ringing furiously.

The bank, which closed its doors last January, harbored no burglars, "Probbaly a short-circuit," reported the watchman to the officers and a crowd of spectators .

"Too late," remarked one of the by-standers, "That alarm should sounded seven months ago."

SCHOOLS AS KTO SET ASIDE TAX LIMITATIONS

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 24—(UP)—More than 700 California school districts are seeking authority to spend $5,593,991 in excess of the limitation place on such expenditures by the Riley-Stewart tax plan according to the state department of education.

Because of provisions in the new tax amendment limiting expenditure increases to 5 per cent annually, permission of the state board of equalization is necessary before the school budgets can be expanded.

According to Vierling Kersey, the state superintendent of public instruction, many school districts are badly in need of the additional funds asked.

MANY FAIL TO PAY TAX

"The tax moratorium early this year resulted in the failure of many property owners to pay taxes with the result that school districts in many instances did not receive the full amounts due them," Kersey stated.

"As a result some districts still are faced with the problem of paying a number of last year's bills. The necessity of painting and maintaining school property has contributed to the need of more money, and the larger city schools are faced with the necessity of providing for increased school attendance."

Of the total number of applications before the board, 341 probably will be granted automatically inasmuch as the proposed 1933-34 expenditures will not exceed the expenses of the basic year 1931-32, even though they are more than 5 per cent over 1932-33.

The board, however, must use its discretion on 364 applications that will amount to a total proposed increase of $1,570,556. The board recently completed a series of hearings on the requests but final action will not be taken for several days, it was annouced.

Applications for increases were received from 638 elementary districts 63 high school districts and 4 junior college districts.

INHERITANCE TAX INCOME DROPS

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 24—(UP)—Yield of the inheritance tax which has dwindled during depression years, is bound to increase in the immediate future ,according to Judge W. H. H. Gentry, chief attorney of the inheritance tax division.

Legislation, coupled with the apparent favorable turn in the tide of business, will serve to bring in additional revenue.

The "death tax" yield for the fiscal year of 1931-32 was $7,288,522.21.

Nevada county's contribution to this total was $920.26.

WIDOW'S EXEMPTIONS CUT

During the mid-summer session, money-seeking legislators passed a law reducing widow's exemptions from $50,000 to $25,000. Legislators thought this would increase the yield $750,000 annually, but Judge Gentry is inclined to believe this estimate is a bit optimistic .

This law doesn't go into effect until 90 days after passage, wich will be late in October.

California's inheritance tax—in effect since 1905—has been liberal by comparison with other states. Even with the tightening up on this exemption, it is still far less than many other states.

RECEDING VALUES

The depression took a heavy toll on inheritance tax revenue. Receding values of all types of property were naturally reflected in the size of estates ,Judge Gentry pointed out.

Even though the state and nation bounds upward rapidly, effect of the depression will still be felt—insofar as the inheritance tax is concerned—for some time to come. For the tax is levied on the estate's value as of the time of death. Thus a man might die today, but by the time his estate was straightened out to the point where a tax could be levied, it would be six months or a year later. By that time, the estate's value might well have increased. But the state could levy its tax only on its value as of August, 1933.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman Will Live in Berkeley

Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Hoffman and two daughters, Marjorie and Rachel, left Monday for Berkeley where they will reside.

Their son, John, who graduated from Nevada City high school last year, has already entered the University of California. Their daughters will enter a Berkeley high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman have resided in Nevada City for about a year since their return from South America and have made many friends here, who will regret their departure.

Mrs. Hoffman was formerly Miss Edith Morgan, a niece of Mrs. Frank Nilon and a native of Nevada City. She has been active in many pleasant social affairs here.

Personal

Miss Edrie Rowe of Grass Valley, who with Harvey Harless, of Rough and Ready, surprised their friends by last week announcing their wedding, March 5, in Reno, is a niece of Will Jeffrey of Nevada City.

Miss Phyllis Horn returned early in the week from Reno where she had been called on account of the death of her grandmother, Mrs. Davis.

N. A. Ramsey, who operates the Brete Harte Cigar store in Nevada City, has gone to Sacramento where he is undergoing treatment for an illness of long-standing. His many friends hope for him a early recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Wisker of Sacramento, motored to Nevada City Wednesday evening and returned with their little niece, Catherine Davis, who will visit with them until Saturday evening.

Mrs. Maud Smart and children went to Pike City Thursday and made all preparation for their moving to that place this week end. Mrs. Smart will teach there this coming school term.

FLAKE GOLD IS PUZZLE TO '49 DIARY WRITER

In the "Diary of a Forty Niner," of which this is the seventh installment of excerpts, readers will be much interested in the discoveries, made by the Argonaut who wrote this journal, and sometimes amazed at the shrewd guesses he made with respect to the origin of gold in its many forms.

March 2, 1852—There is a place below Nevada City that is like Rough and Ready in the way of deposits, and that is Red Hill. I am told that they find the gold there in narrow clay streak and when they discover one it is sure to be rich. It's a peculiar sort of gold, not nuggets or ordinary dust, but flaky and in thin leaves, and so light that a yeast powder can full will not weigh more than four to five ounces. It has been a puzzle to the mining sharks as it knocks out all theories of gold coming from the high mountains or out of the quartz veins exclusively.

The next day I crossed over to Grass Valley and had a look at the quartz mines. There is something that upsets all of our notions. In two or three places they have followed these veins of white, glassy rock down into the bed rock for 75 feet and they don't seem to pinch out (put in depth of deepest Grass Valley mine).

I did not find anybody to explain how gold got inside this hard rock, and I guess nobody knows. (Note—This touches on a subject that in pioneer days furnished matter for elaborate discussion. The geologist had not invaded the field and in the early "fifties" there were many theories ,absurd and otherwise, as to the genesis of the gold deposits. The one generally accepted was that which attributed its origin to a big vein or deposit high up in the mountains and this ignis fatuus lured many to long ,fruitless searches).

March 16, 1852—What little difference it makes to us here whether a man has money or not. I know half a dozen men on Selby Hill who have taken out in the past year anywhere from forty thousand to sixty thousand dollars apiece, and a dozen more who have made still more than that from mining ground on Gold Flat, Coyotevillo and Manzanita Hill. They don't put on airs and nobody envies them. We don't ask what a man is worth or how much he has got. The only question is, is he a good fellow?

If there is one thing that prevails it is the good fellowship among us all. If a man is taken sick, is hurt, or in bad luck, there is not one of us that is not ready to nurse him or put our hands into our pockets if necessary. We don't ask who he is, where he came from, or what is his religion.

We were all talking over at Selby Flat the other night and the crowd was unanimous in denouncing the extravagance of a project that was being agitated to build a brick courthouse at Nevada City. No matter how much gold is discovered, it cannot last always—not more than a few years at most—and when it is gone what will there be to keep up a town, or to live for, and then all of the money spent on stone buildings and courthouses will be to waste.

The outside towns—Grass Valley, Rough and Ready and Selby Flat—are doing some lively kicking over the courthouse scheme ,and there is talk of a fight to take away the county seat from Nevada City.

Miss Desiree Lucas, high school student on Wednesday, underwent an operation for the removal of her tonsils. Dr. Harry N. March of Grass Valley was the hurgeon.

LUMBER TALKS

Hello Home Builder

The house with unstable foundation
Will suffer innumerable ills;
A wind storm will cause it to tremble,
The earthquake will give it the chills;
The floors will sag down in the middle,
The plaster most surely will crack,
The door and the windows will rattle,
Like those of a broken down hack.

Be sure, that the lumber you purchase,
Is suitable, sturdy and strong.
Then fashion a dwelling, my brother,
And sing there the home lover's song;
The rain will not seep thru the shingles,
The wind will not rattle the doors,
The plaster will stay where you put it,
Your tread will not shatter the floors.

And now that dame Summer has left us,
And Autumn is here in her stead,
Get ready for boisterous winter,
Who marshalls the storm clouds o'er head.
